RAJBIR SEHRAWAT, J. (Oral)

The petitioner has filed this petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India praying for issuance of writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing impugned charge-sheet (Annexure P-2) along with all consequent proceedings; along with certain other prayers.

The counsel for the petitioner submits that since the final punishment order has been passed by the punishing authority against the petitioner and the said order is appealable under the rules, therefore, the present petition has been rendered infructuous. The petitioner would avail his statutory remedy of filing the appeal.

In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of as having been rendered as infructuous. However, the petitioner would be at liberty to avail his statutory remedy of appeal, in accordance with law.

All the pending applications, if any, stand disposed of accordingly.
