Prayer is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.586 dated 14.09.2020, under Sections 379-B, 201, 34 IPC registered at Police Station City Yamuna Nagar, District Yamuna Nagar.

As per the FIR on 09.09.2020, an information was received that one person was lying in an unconscious condition near Fire Brigade Office, Yamuna Nagar at Khajuri Road. Upon this, police officials reached the site and took the injured (Ved Parkash) to the Civil Hospital, Yamuna Nagar. Doctor declared him unfit to give statement. Thereafter, on 14.09.2020, he was referred to PGI, Chandigarh. Statement of his daughter namely Priyanaka Pal was recorded by the police in which she stated that on 06.09.2020 at 7:30 PM, her father (Ved Parkash) had gone to Yamuna Nagar for unloading wood in his truck and on 07.09.2020 at about 8:43 AM, she received a telephone call of her father that he had unloaded the vehicle and had received the fare. On 08.09.2020 after 8:00 AM, she tried to contact her father number of times on the mobile phone but his mobile phone was found switched off. Later, the family was informed by Truck painter that the truck of her father was parked near Fire Bridge Office, Yamuna Nagar and some unknown person had inflicted injuries to her father, snatched cash amount, mobile and ATM card and fled from the occurrence place.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that the petitioner is in custody since 15.10.2020. Rs.2000/- and mobile of the injured (Ved Parkash) has been recovered from the petitioner. Investigation in the case is complete, challan in this case has been presented and charges have been framed.

Learned State counsel states that the petitioner is an habitual offender and one other case under Section 379 IPC is pending against the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner is on bail in the said case.

Without commenting anything on merit of case and considering the fact that trial of case may take a long time due to prevailing situation on account of COVID 2019 and also the fact that the investigation in the case is complete and the petitioner is in custody since 15.10.2020, no useful purpose would be served by keeping him behind bars. Hence this petition is allowed. The petitioner-Furkan is ordered to be released on bail subject on his furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned.
