RAVI SHANKER JHA, CHIEF JUSTICE (oral)

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioners, it is observed that the guidelines have been issued by the Government of Punjab, Department of Home Affairs & Justice whereas the representation filed by the petitioner is before the Deputy Commissioner.

In the circumstances and in view of the statement of the learned Additional Advocate General appearing for the respondent-State of Punjab that the representation filed by the petitioner before the appropriate and competent authority would be considered and decided at the earliest preferably within a period of one week.

Accordingly, the petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to file a representation before the competent appropriate authority and in case the petitioner does so, in view of the statement of the learned Additional Advocate General, Punjab, the same shall be considered and a decision thereon would be taken by the competent authority expeditiously within a period of one week from the date of filing of the same and thereafter decision would be communicated to the petitioner.
