... Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE G.S. SANDHAWALIA

Present: Mr.R.K.Malik, Sr.Advocate with Mr.Sunil Hooda, Advocate, for the applicant/petitioner.

Mr.Shivendra Swaroop, AAG,Haryana.

(The proceedings are being conducted through video conferencing, as per instructions.)

G.S. Sandhawal, J. (Oral)

The grouse of the petitioner is that 5 additional marks had not been awarded while considering his case for appointment as Male Constable under the General Category in lieu of no other family member being in Government service.

It is the case of the petitioner that he has got 54.4 marks, as per the result (Annexure P-7). A perusal of the same would also go on to show that no marks have been awarded under the said category and in the application form (Annexure P-2), specific averment has been made that there is no other family member in Government service.

Keeping in view the above, since even reply has not been filed though more than 2 years have passed, the present writ petition is disposed of, since a message has been received by Mr.Swaroop, on instructions from Mr.Dikansh Goel, Law Officer (HSSC) that the petitioner is entitled for the marks since there is no family member in Government service. Copy of the said communication has been received and taken on record.
