.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN KUMAR TYAGI

Present : Mr. Jasjit Singh Bedi, Senior Advocate with Mr. Sonpreet Singh Brar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Kanwar Sanjiv Kumar, Asstt. A.G., Haryana
for the respondent-State.

ARUN KUMAR TYAGI, J. (ORAL)

(The case has been taken up for hearing through video conferencing.)

The petitioner has filed the present (first) petition under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 for grant of regular bail in case FIR No.58 dated 16.04.2021 registered under Section 17 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (for short, "the NDPS Act") at Police Station Odhan, District Sirsa.

The petitioner being in custody has filed the present petition for grant of regular bail.

The petition has been opposed by the learned State Counsel. However, no reply has been filed by the respondent-State.

I have heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned State Counsel and gone through the relevant record.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. As per the allegations, recovery of 1.5 Kgs. of opium was allegedly made from the petitioner which falls in the category of non-commercial quantity. The petitioner was falsely involved in another case under the NDPS Act but he is on bail in that case. The trial is likely to take long time due to restrictions imposed to prevent the spread of Covid-19 and no useful purpose will be served by further detention of the petitioner in custody during trial. Therefore, the petitioner may be granted regular bail.

On the other hand, learned State has submitted that the petitioner is a habitual offender and is involved in one more case under the NDPS Act. In view of his antecedents, nature of accusation and gravity of offence, the petitioner does not deserve grant of regular bail. Therefore, the petition may be dismissed.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of accusation and evidence against the petitioner, the fact that the quantity of the contraband allegedly recovered from him falls under the category of non-commercial quantity and rigors of Section 37(1)(b) of the NDPS Act are not applicable and also the fact that the trial is likely to take long time due to restrictions imposed to prevent the spread of infection of Covid-19, but without commenting on the merits of the case, I am inclined to extend the concession of regular bail to the petitioner.

In view of the above, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on furnishing of personal and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Magistrate concerned.

However, the petitioner is granted regular bail subject to the condition that he shall not commit any offence under the NDPS Act after his release on bail and in case of commission of any such offence by him in future, his bail in the present case shall also be liable to be cancelled on application to be filed by the prosecution in this regard.
