After arguing for some time, learned counsel for the petitioner prays for withdrawal of the present petition at this stage in view of the fact that material witnesses including the prosecutrix have not been examined till date and the matter is fixed for consideration of framing of the charges and has sought liberty to file bail application after the material witnesses are examined.

So far as grant of liberty for filing another bail application after recording of the statements of material witnesses is concerned, remedy of bail can always be invoked in accordance with law.
