Versus

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARNARESH SINGH GILL

Present:- Mr. Narender Pal Bhardwaj, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Amrik Singh Narwal, DAG Haryana.

HARNARESH SINGH GILL, J. (ORAL)

Case is taken up for hearing through video conferencing.

Through this petition, the petitioner seeks regular bail in case bearing FIR No. 209 dated 24.03.2021, registered at Police Station Karnal City, District Karnal, under Section 379-B IPC.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the FIR was registered on the complaint of Kuldeep Kumar and the petitioner was not specifically named. The petitioner, who is 21-year-old, has been in custody since 26.03.2021; that challan has already been presented, and that there is no other case pending or registered against him. The alleged recovery of Rs. 1500/- has already been effected from co-accused. The said co-accused,

Hemant, has been granted regular bail, vide order dated 22.06.2021 passed by this Court. Moreover, the matter has been compromised between the parties.

Learned State counsel submits that the plea of releasing the petitioner on bail on the basis of compromise, has even been rejected by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Karnal, by noticing that the offence is non-compoundable.

I have heard the learned counsel for the parties.

The recovery has already been effected from the co-accused. There is no other case registered or pending against the petitioner. He has been in custody since 26.03.2021. Trial of the case would take time to conclude. Moreover, co-accused, Hemant, has been granted regular bail. Therefore, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner behind the bars.

In view of the above, without commenting anything on the merits, lest it should prejudice the case of either side, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
