CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASGURPREET SINGH PURI

Present : Mr. A.S.Brar, Advocate for the petitioners.

Through Video Conferencing

JASGURPREET SINGH PURI. J. (Oral)

At the outset, learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that during the pendency of the present petition an FIR has been registered against the private respondents and, therefore, so far as the prayer with regard to the taking action against the private respondents is concerned, the present petition has become infructuous and he does not wish to press for the same. He has, however, submitted that the petitioners still have apprehension of their life at the hands of some other persons also against whom an FIR has not been registered. He has further submitted that he may be granted liberty to approach the police for taking appropriate action.

Mr. Thind, learned DAG, Punjab has stated that it is correct that during the pendency of the present petition, an FIR has been registered against some of the private respondents and he has no objection in case the petitioners approach the police authorities in accordance with law for protection of their life.

In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of as having become infructuous.

However, the petitioners shall be at liberty to approach the police authorities in case it is so required and in accordance with law for the protection of his life.
