HARINDER SINGH SIDHU, J.

Petitioner has filed this petition under Article 226/227 of Constitution of India seeking directions to respondents to release him on parole for a period of 1 week to enable him to get medical treatment of his mother.

In the reply filed on behalf of respondents, it has been stated that on an application received from mother of petitioner, the parole case of petitioner has been initiated vide letter dated 16.6.2021 and the case has been forwarded to Divisional Commissioner, Karnal Division, Karnal for further action. It has been further stated that parole case of petitioner would be disposed of in due course as per provisions of law.

As the case of petitioner for release on parole is already under process, this petition is disposed of with a direction to Commissioner, Karnal Division, Karnal to take a final decision regarding grant of parole to petitioner preferably within a period of 3 weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.
