Harsimran Singh Sethi J. (Oral)

Though, in the present petition, petitioner is praying for the grant of regular bail but at the time of hearing, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that as the complainant is yet to be examined, the petitioner does not wish to press this petition, at this stage.

Learned counsel for the petitioner prays that the complainant be examined as the next witness by the trial Court.

Learned State counsel as well as learned counsel appearing on behalf of the complainant raises no objection with regard to examination of the complainant during the trial as the next witness.

The petition qua the prayer for the grant of regular bail is being disposed of having been not pressed at this stage. The trial Court is directed that the complainant be examined as the next witness. Learned counsel for the complainant has assured this Court that the complainant will cooperate in respect of his examination before the trial Court in all possible manner.

Petition stands disposed of having been not pressed.
