Anita Sharma

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN KUMAR TYAGI

Present : Mr. Gursimran Singh Madaan, Advocate for the petitioner.

ARUN KUMAR TYAGI, J (ORAL)

(The case has been taken up for hearing through video conferencing.)

Petitioner-Anita Sharma has filed present petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (for short 'the Cr.P.C.') for quashing of order dated 06.12.2019 passed by learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Jalandhar in case FIR No.101 dated 23.07.2019 registered under Sections 406, 420 and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (for short 'the IPC'), Section 24 of the Immigration Act and Section 13 of the Punjab Travel Professionals Regulation Act, 2014 at Police Station Navi Baradari Jalandhar, whereby the petitioner was declared proclaimed person under Section 82 of the Cr.P.C., and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom.

Briefly stated the facts relevant for disposal of present petition are that the above-said FIR was registered on complaint of Ramanpreet Kaur. In her complaint Ramanpreet Kaur alleged that accused Anita Sharma (the petitioner) along with her husband Kapil Sharma cheated and defrauded the complainant for an amount of Rs.9,34,000/- on the pretext of sending her to Canada.

On failure of the petitioner to appear before the Court despite publication of proclamation, the petitioner was declared proclaimed person vide order dated 06.12.2019.

Feeling aggrieved from the above-said order, the petitioner has filed the present petition for quashing of the same along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom.

Notice of motion.

Pursuant to advance notice, Mr. Rana Harjasdeep Singh, DAG, Punjab has appeared and opposed the petition. However, no reply has been filed by the respondent-State.

I have heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned State Counsel and have gone through the record.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner was wrongly declared proclaimed person vide order dated 06.12.2019 in breach of the prescribed procedure. The petitioner was not given thirty days time for her appearance before the Court. Therefore, the impugned order and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom may be quashed.

On the other hand, learned State Counsel has submitted that the petitioner absconded and was rightly declared proclaimed person vide order dated 06.12.2019 after expiry of the period of 30 days from publication of the proclamation. The impugned order does not suffer from any illegality and the petition may be dismissed.

On consideration of the submissions made by learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned State Counsel and on perusal of the relevant record, I am of the considered view that the impugned order dated 06.12.2019 suffers from material illegality and is liable to be quashed with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom.

Section 82 of the Cr.P.C., which provides for publication of proclamation against person absconding, reads as under:-

“82. Proclamation for person absconding.—

*(1) If any Court has reason to believe (whether after taking evidence or not) that any person against whom a warrant has been issued by it has absconded or is concealing himself so that such warrant cannot be executed, such Court may publish a written proclamation requiring him to appear at a specified place and at a specified time not less than thirty days from the date of publishing such proclamation.

(2) The proclamation shall be published as follows:—

(i) (a) it shall be publicly read in some conspicuous place of the town or village in which such person ordinarily resides;

(b) it shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house or homestead in which such person ordinarily resides or to some conspicuous place of such town or village;

(c) a copy thereof shall be affixed to some conspicuous part of the Court-house;

(ii) the Court may also, if it thinks fit, direct a copy of the proclamation to be published in a daily newspaper circulating in the place in which such person ordinarily resides.

(3) A statement in writing by the Court issuing the proclamation to the effect that the proclamation was duly published on a specified day, in the manner specified in clause (i) of sub-section (2), shall be conclusive evidence that the requirements of this section have been complied with, and that the proclamation was published on such day.

(4) Where a proclamation published under sub-section (1) is in respect of a person accused of an offence punishable under section 302, 304, 364, 367, 382, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 402, 436, 449, 459 or 460 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860), and such person fails to appear at the specified place and time required by the proclamation, the Court may, after making such inquiry as it thinks fit, pronounce him a proclaimed offender and make a declaration to that effect.

(5) The provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) shall apply to a declaration made by the Court under sub-section (4) as they apply to the proclamation published under sub-section (1).”

The essential requirements of Section 82 of the Cr.P.C. for issuance and publication of proclamation against an absconder and declaring him as proclaimed person/offender may be summarized as under:-

- (i) Prior issuance of warrant of arrest by the Court is sine qua non for issuance and publication of the proclamation and the Court has to first issue warrant of arrest against the person concerned. (See Rohit Kumar Vs. State of Delhi : 2008 CrL J. 2561).
- (ii) There must be a report before the Court that the person against whom warrant was issued had absconded or had been concealing himself so that the warrant of arrest could not be executed against him. However, the Court is not bound to take evidence in this regard before issuing a Proclamation under Section 82 (1) of the Cr.P.C.. (See Rohit Kumar Vs. State of Delhi : 2008 CrL J. 2561).
- (iii) The Court cannot issue the Proclamation as a matter of course because the Police is asking for it. The Court must be prima facie satisfied that the person has absconded or is concealing himself so that the warrant of arrest, previously issued, cannot be executed, despite reasonable diligence. (See Bishundayal Mahton and others Vs. Emperor : AIR 1943 Patna 366 and Devender Singh Negi Vs. State of U.P. : 1994 CrL LJ (Allahabad HC) 1783).
- (iv) The requisite date and place for appearance must be specified in the proclamation requiring such person to appear on such date at the specified place. Such date must not be less than 30 clear days from the date of issuance and publication of the proclamation. (See Gurappa Gugal and others Vs. State of Mysore : 1969 CriLJ 826 and Shokat Ali Vs. State of Haryana : 2020(2) RCR (Criminal) 339).
- (V) Where the period between issuance and publication of the proclamation and the specified date of hearing is less than thirty days, the accused cannot be declared a proclaimed person/offender and the proclamation has to be issued and published again. (See Dilbagh Singh Vs. State of Punjab (P&H) :

2015 (8) R.C.R. (criminal) 166 and Ashok Kumar Vs. State of Haryana and another : 2013 (4) RCR (Criminal) 550)

- (vi) The Proclamation has to be published in the manner laid down in Section 82 (2) of the Cr.P.C.. For publication the proclamation has to be first publicly read in some conspicuous place of the town or village in which the accused ordinarily resides; then the same has to be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house or homestead in which the accused ordinarily resides or to some conspicuous place of such town or village and thereafter a copy of the proclamation has to be affixed to some conspicuous part of the Court-house. The three sub-clauses (a)-(c) in Section 82 (2)(i) of the Cr.P.C. are conjunctive and not disjunctive, which means that there would be no valid publication of the proclamation unless all the three modes of publication are proved. (See Pawan Kumar Gupta Vs. The State of W.B. : 1973 CriLJ 1368). Where the Court so orders a copy of the proclamation has to be additionally published in a daily newspaper circulating in the place in which the accused ordinarily resides. Advisably, proclamation has to be issued with four copies so that one each of the three copies of the proclamation may be affixed to some conspicuous part of the house or homestead in which the accused ordinarily resides, to some conspicuous place of such town or village and to some conspicuous part of the Court-house and report regarding publication may be made on the fourth copy of the proclamation. Additional copy will be required where the proclamation is also required to be published in the newspaper.
- (vii) Statement of the serving officer has to be recorded by the Court as to the date and mode of publication of the proclamation. (See Birad Dan Vs. State : 1958 CriLJ 965).
- (viii) The Court issuing the proclamation has to make a statement in writing in its order that the proclamation was duly published on a specified day in a manner specified in Section 82(2)(i) of the Cr.P.C.. Such statement in writing by the Court is declared to be conclusive evidence that the requirements of Section 82 have been complied with and that the proclamation was published on such day. (See Birad Dan Vs. State : 1958 CriLJ 965).
- (xi) The conditions specified in Section 82(2) of the Cr.P.C. for the publication of a Proclamation against an absconder are mandatory. Any non-compliance therewith cannot be cured as an 'irregularity' and renders the Proclamation and proceedings subsequent thereto a nullity. (See Devendra Singh Negi alias Debu Vs. State of U.P. and another : 1994 CriLJ 1783 and Pal Singh Vs. The State : 1955 CriLJ 318).

In the present case vide order dated 23.09.2019 proclamation was ordered to be published against the petitioner under Section 82 of the Cr.P.C. requiring the petitioner to appear before the Court on 01.11.2019. The proclamation was published on 30.10.2019. The petitioner was not given statutory minimum period of thirty days from 30.10.2019 the date of publication of the proclamation issued in terms of order dated 23.09.2019 for her appearance before the Court on 01.11.2019. Vide order dated 01.11.2019 learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Jalandhar adjourned the case for awaiting the appearance of the petitioner on the ground that statutory period of thirty days had not elapsed and declared the petitioner to be proclaimed person vide order dated 06.12.2019. Learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Jalandhar could not extend the time by simply adjourning the case for awaiting appearance of the petitioner and was mandatorily required to issue the proclamation again for publication thereof in accordance with the provisions of Section 82(2) of the Cr.P.C. It follows that the petitioner was wrongly declared proclaimed person vide impugned order dated 06.12.2019 in breach of the prescribed procedure and impugned order dated 06.12.2019 suffers from material illegality and is liable to be quashed.

In view of the above discussion, the petition is allowed and impugned order dated 06.12.2019 passed by learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Jalandhar in case FIR No.101 dated 23.07.2019 registered under Sections 406, 420 and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (for short 'the IPC'), Section 24 of the Immigration Act and Section 13 of the Punjab Travel Professionals Regulation Act, 2014 at Police Station Navi Baradari Jalandhar is quashed along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom.

However, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the Court concerned in case FIR No.101 dated 23.07.2019 registered under Sections 406, 420 and 120-B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (for short 'the IPC'), Section 24 of the Immigration Act and Section 13 of the Punjab Travel Professionals Regulation Act, 2014 at Police Station Navi Baradari Jalandhar within four weeks, subject to order for grant of anticipatory bail, if any passed on her petition to be filed under Section 438 of the Cr.P.C. In the absence of any order for grant of anticipatory bail and on such surrender, the petitioner shall be liable to be remanded to judicial custody subject to any order for grant of regular bail to be passed by the concerned Court in accordance with law.

Needless to observe that in case any application is filed before the concerned Court for grant of regular bail, then the concerned Court shall be bound to dispose of the same expeditiously and that nothing in this order shall be treated as expression of any opinion on merits so as to bind or influence the concerned Court in disposal of the same.
