CRM-M-20919-2020 (O&M)

Date of decision : 22.09.2021.

Karamjit Singh @ Rishu

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.. Respondent

CORAM :HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL

Present:- Ms. Divya Jerath, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Ramandeep Sandhu, Senior DAG, Punjab.

Ms. Anupam Bhanot, Advocate for the complainant.

Anupinder Singh Grewal, J. (Oral)

Heard through video conferencing.

The petitioner is seeking anticipatory bail in FIR No.189 dated 28.06.2020, under Sections 307, 341, 323, 506, 148, 149 IPC, registered at Police Station Bhawanigarh, District Sangrur.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the injuries which are attributed to the petitioner are simple in nature and on the non-vital parts of the body of the complainant and the injured. She also contends that co-accused, namely, Jagmel Singh and Paramjeet Kaur have been granted anticipatory bail by this Court in CRM-M-19671 of 2020, on 11.09.2021.

Learned State counsel, however, contends that the petitioner had caused injuries on the leg and biceps of injured-Taranjeet Singh and subsequently co-accused had also given serious injuries on the head and other vital parts of Taranjeet Singh. He also contends that no specific injury was attributed to co-accused Jagmel Singh and Paramjeet Kaur, who had been granted anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for the complainant also contends that the injured-Taranjit Singh was seriously injured and he is bed ridden for over a year.

Heard.

It is apparent that the petitioner is alleged to have been the initial aggressor and has caused injuries on the leg and biceps of the injured-Taranjeet Singh, who is stated to be bed ridden for over a year. Therefore, I do not deem it appropriate to grant the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Consequently, the petition along with miscellaneous applications stands dismissed.
