CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANT PARKASH

Present: Mr. J.S. Yadav, Advocate, for the petitioners.

[The aforesaid presence is being recorded through video conferencing since the proceedings are being conducted in virtual court.]

SANT PARKASH, J.

The instant writ petition has been filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India seeking issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing of notice dated 19.08.2019 (Annexure P-3) issued under Section 13(2) of the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Securities Interest Act, 2002 (for short "SARFAESI Act") as well as notice dated 24.02.2020 (Annexure P-7) issued under Section 13(4) of the SARFAEST Act and also for issuance of a writ in the nature of nature of mandamus directing respondents No. 1 to 3 to regularise/settle the account of the petitioners under OTS scheme.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that Manjeet Singh, the sole proprietor of M/s Nandini Floor Mills applied for Cash Credit limit of Rs.20,00,000/- and term loan of Rs.30,00,000/-, which was sanctioned by respondent No.2-Bank on 15.09.2015. Learned counsel further submits that petitioner No.2 stood as a guarantor with respect to the above-said loan amount. As collateral security, petitioner-Firm mortgaged property, i.e. agricultural land measuring 17 Marlas situated at village Qutabpur Mohalla, District Rewari. He next submits that though the petitioner-Firm had been regularly paying the installments but due to scarcity of funds, petitioner-Firm could not pay some of the installments of loan amount timely and therefore, their account became irregular. He next submits that the respondent-Bank issued notice dated 19.08.2019 (P-3) under Section 13(2) of the SARFAESI Act and also possession notice dated 24.02.2020 (P-7) under Section 13(4) of the SARFAESI Act read with Rule 8(6) of the Security Interest (Enforcement) Rules, 2002.

Learned counsel for the petitioners argues that the action of the respondent-Bank is in complete violation of the provisions of the SARFAESI Act and the Rules framed thereunder and therefore, impugned notices are liable to be quashed. He further submits that the petitioners are ready and willing to pay the outstanding loan amount and to settle the matter.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and perused the paper-book.

Admittedly, petitioner-Firm availed Cash Credit limit of Rs.20,00,000/- and Rs.30,00,000/- for term loan. The aforesaid amount was concededly secured by mortgaging the agricultural land in question with respondent-Bank. It is also not disputed that the petitioner-Firm failed to repay the loan amount and therefore, the respondent-Bank initiated SARFAESI proceedings by issuing impugned notices.

On the last date of hearing, i.e. 27.07.2021, following order was passed by this Court:

“Counsel for the petitioner(s) prays for time to place on record the One Time Settlement (OTS) scheme floated by the respondent-Canara Bank, under which, the cases of the petitioner(s) are required to be considered.

List on 18.08.2021.

A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of connected case.”

Today, learned counsel for the petitioners has failed to comply with the above-said order and has not placed on the file any One Time Settlement scheme floated by the respondent-Bank under which the case of the petitioners can be considered.

De hors the aforesaid factual aspects, petitioners have efficacious remedy available before the appropriate authority i.e. Debt Recovery Tribunal. The law in this regard is very settled that when appropriate forum is provided under the SARFAESI Act, this Court stands injuncted from interfering with any matter arising out of the proceedings under the SARFAESI Act. Therefore, no ground for interference is made out particularly, in view of the judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of United Bank of India Versus Satyawati Tandon and others*, reported as (2010) 8 SCC 110 and Authorised Officer, State Bank of Travancore and another Vs Mathew K.C., 2018 (2) R.C.R. (Civil) 1.

In view of the aforesaid position, the present writ petition is dismissed and the petitioners are relegated to avail their remedy available before the Debt Recovery Tribunal.
