Nirmol Rattan Singh and others

.....Petitioners

versus

Ravjot Kaur and others

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE FATEH DEEP SINGHPresent: Ms. Kanwal Walia, Advocate for the petitioners.FATEH DEEP SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Due to outbreak of pandemic COVID-19, the instant case is being taken up for hearing through video conferencing.

The present petitioners are in litigation with respondent No.1 over the guardianship of the two minor children born out of the wedlock between petitioner No.1-Nirmol Rattan Singh and respondent No.1-Ravjot Kaur and during the pendency of the petition under the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890, the petitioners claim that they have moved an application under Section 12 of the Guardians and Wards Act for interim custody of the minor children. The primary grouse of the petitioners' side is that the application for interim custody is not being disposed off by the Court of the learned Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Jalandhar.

Upon hearing learned counsel for the petitioners and on perusal of the records, be so as it may, it would suffice to dispose off the present application, if directions are issued to the Court of the learned Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, District Jalandhar to ensure that the application for interim custody of the children moved by the petitioners is disposed off preferably within a period of one month from the date of receipt of the certified copy of this order.

The present petition stands disposed off.
