for the petitioner.

MANJARI NEHRU KAUL, J. (Oral)

This is the first petition filed under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 for grant of concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.262 dated 12.04.2021 lodged under Sections 304-B, 354 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 registered at Police Station Hisar Sadar, District Hisar, Haryana.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner who is a 64 year old man has been falsely implicated in the case in hand. He further submits that the delay in the registration of the FIR in addition to no specific allegations having been levelled with respect to the alleged dowry demands leaves no manner of doubt that a false case has been planted upon the petitioner.

Heard.

A perusal of the FIR in question reveals that the deceased who was married just three years prior to the occurrence was subjected to continuous harassment and torture by the petitioner and the other accused.

Various Panchayats were convened between the parties in the said regard wherein the petitioner apologized for outraging the modesty of his deceased daughter in law as a result of which he was let off by the family of the complainant.

Prima facie, there are specific and serious allegations against the petitioner for which he does not deserve the concession of anticipatory bail. Resultantly, the instant petition stands dismissed.
