CRWP-6271 of 2021

Date of Decision: 8.7.2021

Akash and another

.... Petitioners

Vs.

State of Punjab and others

.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH

Present: Mr.A.S.Gulati, Advocate, for the petitioners

...

AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Case heard via video conferencing.

By this petition, the petitioners seek protection of life and liberty at the hands of respondents no. 4 to 8, who are stated to be the parents, brothers and grandmother of petitioner no.2, upon them having married each other (as contended) against the wishes of the said respondents, on 6.7.2021.

On a specific query put to learned counsel for the petitioners, it has been stated that neither are the petitioners in any prohibited relationship to each other, nor has any of them been married earlier. He states that he has obtained specific instructions from the petitioners in that regard.

Consequently, since protection of life and liberty is a fundamental right of every citizen enshrined in Article 21 of the Constitution of India, without making any comment whatsoever on the validity of the marriage, or otherwise, this petition is disposed of with a direction to respondents no.2 and 3 to ensure that the lives and liberty of the petitioners are not put to any harm or threat at the hands of the aforesaid respondents, or at their behest.

As per the copies of the Matriculation Examination Certificates of the petitioners, as have been annexed with the petition as Annexures P-2 and P-4 respectively, they are both above marriageable age in terms of the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006, as also the Hindu Marriage Age, 1955.

It is made, however, clear that if, upon verification of the Matriculation Examination Certificates of the petitioners, they are found to be below the marriageable age in terms of the provisions of the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006, this order shall not be construed to be a bar on any proceedings initiated under that Act, offences committed under that Act being cognizable in terms of Section 15 thereof.

Further, it is made clear that if any of the averments made in the petition is found to be incorrect, specifically with regard to either the petitioners being in any prohibited relationship to each other, or as regards their previous marital status, this order shall not be construed to be a bar on proceedings initiated as per law.
