After arguing for considerable time, learned senior counsel for the petitioner submits that inadvertently she could not place on record the complete documents as filed under Section 173 (2) Cr.P.C. and wishes to withdraw the present petition with liberty to file fresh one.

Learned senior counsel for the petitioner further submits that she may be given exemption from filing the typed and translated copy of all set of documents. Learned State counsel has no objection, if the petitioner is given such liberty.

Learned senior counsel further prays that due to the condition of the petitioner, it shall be very difficult to procure fresh power of attorney. Consequently, there shall be no need to file fresh power of attorney rather she may file the existing power of attorney along with the fresh petition. The Registry is directed not to insist for fresh power of attorney along with the fresh petition, in case need arises, power of attorney filed in this case shall be taken as a part of fresh petition.

Consequently, the present petition is disposed having been withdrawn with liberty to file fresh as aforesaid.

It is clarified that withdrawal of the present petition will not come in the way of filing a fresh petition.
