This is an application for condonation of delay of 8 days in filing the present appeal.

For the reasons stated in the application, which is duly supported by an affidavit, delay of 8 days in filing the present appeal is condoned.

Application stands disposed of.

Main case

This is an appeal filed by the appellant-claimant for enhancement while seeking modification of the award dated 05.02.2019 vide which the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal has awarded an amount of Rs.60,000/- alongwith interest @ 7% per annum from the date of filing of the claim petition till realisation of the amount so awarded.

It has been brought to the notice of this Court that the matter has been compromised. The statement of Mr. Rajbir Singh, Advocate for respondent No.2-Insurance Company has been recorded. The same is

The statement of Mr. Tushar Gautam, Advocate appearing for the appellant/claimant has already been recorded, which is reproduced herein below:-

“Statement of Sh. Tushar Gautam, Advocate, learned counsel for the applicant(s)/appellant(s)/claimant(s).

On the instructions of my client(s), I am prepared to accept Rs.60,000/- Rupees Sixty Thousand only, over and above the amount already awarded by the MACT.

This would be in full and final satisfaction of the claim of the appellant(s) in the appeal.

The aforementioned amount may be paid to appellant No.1 in proportion as already awarded by the MACT.

A perusal of the above statements would show that the claimant as well as the Insurance Company have compromised the matter by stating that a compensation of Rs.60,000/- over and above the amount already awarded by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, will be paid by the Insurance Company to the appellant/claimant.

Counsel appearing for the respondent No.2-Insurance Company has further stated that the said amount would be paid by the Insurance Company to the appellant within a period of 4 weeks from today, failing which the interest @ 9% p.a. shall follow from the date of the settlement before the Lok Adalat till the date of payment.

Insurance Company has further stated that a cheque amounting to Rs.60,000/- in the name of appellant, will be deposited with the office of the Lok Adalat of the Hon'ble High Court on or before 13.09.2021, failing which the interest @ 9% p.a. shall follow at this amount till the payment from the date of this order.

In view of the above, we are of the opinion that the compromise is genuine and bona fide and in the best interest of the claimant as well as all the parties concerned.

Accordingly, the appeal is disposed of as having been compromised and the compromise shall be treated as part and parcel of the award, and the order of the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Palwal, stands modified in terms of the said compromise. The parties will be bound by the said compromise.

The concerned officer of the Lok Adalat Branch/Office shall issue proper receipt after receiving the Cheque/Demand Draft to learned counsel/representative of the respondent-Insurance Company. The appellant(s)/counsel for appellant(s) may collect the cheque from the office of the Lok Adalat.

Since, the main case has been decided, application bearing CM-16392-CII-2019 for placing on record the document i.e. Annexure A-1 as additional evidence, has been rendered infructuous and is disposed of as such.
