.... Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present Mr. Yashveer Kharb, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Dhruv Sihag, AAG, Haryana.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J.(Oral)

The instant petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for grant of regular bail to the petitioner pending trial in FIR No.98 dated 25.05.2021, under Sections 323, 354-A, 452 and 506 IPC (Final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. filed under Sections 323, 354, 376, 376 (2)(n), 452 and 506 IPC registered at Police Station Sanoli, District Panipat.

Learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner herein has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is contended that the petitioner herein is in custody since 28.05.2021. The statement of the material witnesses including the complainant and her husband have been recorded and they have not supported the version of the prosecution whereas the trial is likely to take time to conclude.

Per contra, learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondent-State, on instructions from the Investigating Officer, opposes the grant of regular bail to the petitioner, while submitting that offences alleged against the petitioner are serious in nature, however, does not dispute the fact that the statement of the material witnesses have been recorded.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties.

The trial is likely to take some time to conclude. the petitioner herein is in custody since 28.05.2021 The statements of the material witnesses have been recorded, so there would be no chance of influencing them at the hands of the petitioner. No useful purpose would be served in keeping the petitioner behind bars any longer. At this stage, without commenting on the merits of the case, the instant petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on regular bail on execution of adequate personal and surety bonds to the satisfaction of concerned trial Court/Duty Magistrate.

Anything observed in this order shall not be construed as an expression of opinion on merits of the case.
