1. Case is being taken up for hearing through Video Conferencing due to Covid-19 pandemic.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner admits that no decision has been taken on the proceedings under the Public Premises and Land (Eviction and Rent Recovery) Act and that the respondent had been directed to take further action for removal of remaining encroachments within reasonable period on decision of proceedings under the Public Premises and Land (Eviction and Rent Recovery) Act and further that the petitioner had been granted liberty to seek revival of the petition or to file fresh petition in the event of action not being taken.
