AVNEESH JHINGAN, J. (ORAL)

This writ petition in the nature of Habeas Corpus was filed by the father of Satvik (a minor child), seeking custody of the minor.

On notice, reply has been filed by respondent No.1-mother of the detenue.

From the pleadings it is forthcoming that a matrimonial dispute is pending between the petitioner and respondent No. 1.

Learned counsel for the parties after addressing arguments at some length are ad idem that it is a matter relating to the custody of the minor child and the petition for custody is pending before the court concerned.

In writ petition, in absence of material to determine the welfare of the minor which is of a paramount consideration no interference is called for.

The petition is disposed of.

However, considering the fact that the custody of minor is involved, there is no doubt that the court concerned shall decide the issue of the custody and any interim relief as prayed for, expeditiously.
