TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA, J. (Oral)

The instant writ petition was filed raising the following prayers:-

“i. Issuance of a writ, order or direction, in the nature of CERTIORARI, quashing the order dated October 21, 2020, uploaded on December 19, 2020, Annexure P/8, passed by the Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Respondent No.3, in complaint case no. 2411 of 2019 titled as 'Amarendra Nath Verma & Anr. v. Selene Constructions Ltd.,' being inter alia illegal, arbitrary, without jurisdiction inasmuch as Respondent No 3 has misdirected itself in entertaining and deciding the complaint filed on behalf of Respondent nos. 4 & 5 especially, especially when it had been filed in such form/manner, which as per the scheme of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 could only be said to be maintainable before the Adjudicating Officer and not before Respondent No.3;

OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE TO PRAYER (1)

ii. Issuance of a writ order or direction, in the nature of MANDAMUS directing Respondent No 2 to entertain the Petitioner's appeal, without requiring the Petitioner to first deposit with the Appellate Tribunal the amount erroneously held to be due and payable to Respondent Nos.4 & 5, as the stated condition under Section 43(5) of the 2016 Act is not only onerous and would ultimately harm/jeopardise the completion of the project, but also, in the facts and circumstances of the present case, there arises no occasion to pre-deposit the amount as the order impugned, apart from being wholly without jurisdiction, is also, non-speaking and cryptic and as such, is liable to be set aside ; and

iii. Issuance of any other appropriate writ, order or direction in favour of the Petitioner, which this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper, in the peculiar facts and circumstances of the present case.”

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that a settlement has since been arrived at with the private respondents/allottees and as such, he has instruction not to pursue the instant writ petition.

In the light of such categoric statement made by counsel at bar, the writ petition is dismissed as not pressed.

Needless to mention that interim direction if, any, issued in the matter would cease to operate.
