Application is allowed.

Document Annexure A-1 is taken on record .

CRM-M-31888-2021

1. The instant petition has been filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in FIR No.448 dated 10.07.2021, registered under Sections 304-B, 498-A, 34 of Indian Penal Code at Police Station Barwala, District Hisar.

2. Counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner herein has been falsely implicated in the present case, as the allegations as set out in the FIR are not sustainable. It is argued that the petitioner herein is the mother-in-law and there are no specific allegations against her in the FIR regarding demand of dowry, therefore, her custodial interrogation would serve no purpose.

3. Notice of motion.

4. Ms. Deepshikha Chauhan, AAG Haryana appearing through the medium of video conferencing accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State and opposes the grant of any concession to the petitioner while submitting that the allegations as set out in the FIR are serious in nature and a reading of the FIR itself would reflect that the petitioner tortured the deceased physically and mentally that she had to consume poison and due to which, she died during her treatment at the hospital. Therefore, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner would be required.

5. At this stage, learned counsel seeks to withdraw the present petition by praying for stay of arrest of the petitioner as she will surrender before the Magistrate concerned and move appropriate application for regular bail, which application he prays for being considered expeditiously.

6. The present petition stands dismissed as withdrawn.

7. The arrest of the petitioner is stayed limited to the period of ten days to enable her to surrender before the trial Court and move application for bail, which may be considered by the trial Court in accordance with law as expeditiously as possible.
