..... Petitioner

VERSUS

State of Haryana

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK SIBAL

Present: Mr.Anshuman Dalal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr.Zorawar Singh Chauhan, DAG, Haryana.

DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (ORAL)

The matter has been taken up through video conferencing.

The present petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for the grant of regular bail in FIR No.359 dated 05.07.2021, registered under Sections 379-B, 394 and 34 IPC at Police Station Sampla, District Rohtak.

The petitioner is being prosecuted for having caused injuries on a petrol pump operator and then running away after getting the CNG filling in the co-accused's car.

Seeking regular bail for the petitioner, learned counsel submits that the petitioner, who is a young boy aged 22 years, has been falsely implicated in this case; he is in custody since 06.07.2021; he is not involved in any other criminal case; investigation in this case is complete; the petitioner and his co-accused have duly paid for the CNG filled in the co-accused's car; no further recovery is required to be made from the petitioner; even if the case of the prosecution is taken as the gospel truth, though vehemently denied, only simple injuries are attributed to the petitioner and his co-accused; at this stage, the petitioner's further incarceration is not required and that the petitioner's trial which is yet to begin, is likely to take long time to conclude.

Learned State counsel opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner on the ground that the petitioner has beaten up the petrol pump attendant and then fled after getting CNG filled in the co-accused's car without paying for it and that if released on bail, he may indulge in similar offences.

Whether the petitioner and his co-accused paid for the CNG filled in the co-accused's car would be debated during the course of the petitioner's trial. However, the petitioner is a young boy aged 22 years; he is in custody since 06.07.2021; he does not have any criminal case pending against him; investigating in this case is complete; no further recovery is required to be made from him; only simple injuries are attributed to him and that the petitioner's trial which is yet to begin, is likely to take long time to conclude.

In view of the above, the present case is considered to be a fit one in which the petitioner be directed to be released on regular bail. Resultantly, subject to the satisfaction of the CJM/Duty Magistrate, Rohtak the petitioner is directed to be released on bail.

It is clarified that the above observations have been made only for the limited purpose of deciding the present regular bail application and the same would not be construed to be an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
