

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-28886 of 2020

DATE OF DECISION :- January 28, 2021

Arashdeep Toor and others

...Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE H.S. MADAAN

Present:- Mr. Navkiran Singh, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. J.S. Ghumman, DAG, Punjab.

Mr. Rajesh Bhateja, Advocate for respondents No. 2 and 3.

The case has been taken up through Video Conferencing.

As per report received from the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court, the matter has been resolved amicably between the parties. Settlement agreement in that regard has been forwarded to this Court, which be taken on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioners states that in view of the amicable resolution of the dispute between the parties through mediation, the present petition seeking quashing of F.I.R on merits has become infructuous and he be permitted to withdraw the same granting him liberty to file a fresh petition for quashing of F.I.R on the basis of compromise. Learned counsel for respondents No. 2 and 3 while admitting the factum of the dispute having been resolved amicably through mediation has stated that he has no objection if prayer of learned counsel for the petitioners is accepted.

Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed as withdrawn being infructuous. The petitioners may file a fresh petition for quashing of F.I.R on the basis of compromise, if so advised in accordance with law.
