MEENAKSHI I. MEHTA, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the detenue has already been recovered and therefore, the instant petition has become infructuous.

Learned State counsel also confirms the factum of the detenue having been recovered and she also submits that the custody of the detenue has also been handed over to the petitioner.

In view of the above-discussed submissions as made by learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned State counsel, the petition in hand stands disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.
