Challenge in the present appeal is to the interim order passed on 27.08.2021, whereby the application for review/recalling of the order dated 01.07.2021 was dismissed, directing the appellant-petitioner, who is an employee of the Forest Department, to plant 100 trees of perennial and deciduous in nature in the vicinity/neighbourhood of the area where he was currently residing (Narwana).

The appellant-petitioner had challenged his transfer orders in the writ petition whereby he was transferred from Narwana to Hisar within 5 days of his posting, which was dismissed on 01.07.2021. It was held that he had completed more than 3 years on the place of his posting in view of interim order dated 22.05.2018. As such, the appellant-petitioner completed his normal tenure of posting at one place and is now due for general transfer.

There is no appearance on behalf of the appellant. Similar was the position on 08.09.2021 and 08.10.2021. A message has been received from the counsel in the office group that he has been asked by the appellant not to appear in the case.
