GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J. (Oral)

At the very outset, learned State counsel has submitted that he has instructions to state that the petitioner shall not be 'arrested' and that keeping in view his juvenility, he may be apprehended by the police officials in 'plain clothes'. It has further been submitted that the petitioner shall not be taken to the Police Station and that immediately upon his apprehension, he shall be produced before the Juvenile Justice Board.

In view of the aforestated position, the instant petition is rendered infructuous and is disposed of as such.
