CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Sunny Bhardwaj, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms. Kirti Singh, Deputy Advocate General, Haryana

Mr. Hitesh Pandit, Advocate for DHBVNL.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The hearing of the case was held through video conferencing on account of restricted functioning of the Courts.

During the pendency of the writ petition, the services of the petitioner have been dispensed with on the ground that he got appointment by procuring fake and bogus certificate to prove that he possesses the minimum qualification.

At the time of arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has passed his ITI Certificate Examination from a government institute. He submits that no doubt, the respondents have verified this fact from the Institute, however, the respondents be directed to re-verify the same.

It is apparent that on the one hand, the respondents have taken a stand that the educational certificate produced by the petitioner is fake and forged which has been verified from the Institute which is supposed to have issued the certificate, whereas, on the other hand, the petitioner alleges that the certificate should be re-verified as it is genuine.

In view thereof, disputed question of facts are involved, therefore, the petitioner is relegated to the remedy of filing a civil suit.

Disposed of accordingly.

All the miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
