CRM-36433 of 2021

Application for impleading the complainant as respondent No.2
is rendered infructuous as he has been heard at length.

CRM-M-37857 of 2021

This petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C. is filed seeking regular bail in case of FIR No. 128 dated 7.8.2021, under Sections 364, 511 read with Section 34 IPC, registered at Police Station Dehlon, District Ludhiana.

The FIR was registered at the instance of Pradeep Singla alleging that on 2.7.2021, his daughter and two grand children who were in the car were chased on motor cycle by the petitioner with an intention to kidnap. The petitioner with his accomplice had taken repeated round of complainant's factory.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in custody since 8.8.2021. No recovery is to be made. Investigation is complete. He further submits that the FIR is only a pressure tactic as the complainant had earlier got registered the FIR in which the petitioner got bail. He further submits that the dispute is with regard to recovery of money.

Reply dated 1.11.2021 filed by the State is taken on record. Learned State counsel fairly submits that investigation is complete and challan has been presented. The petitioner was identified by the complainant and he is involved in another FIR.

Mr. Sandeep Bansal, Advocate puts in appearance on behalf of complainant and opposes the prayer for grant of bail. He dispute the contention that recovery of money is involved.

The allegations in the FIR are that the daughter of complainant and grand children were intended to be kidnapped, without making any further comments on the merits of the case, considering that investigation is complete, conclusion of trial is likely to take time and the parties are already in litigation, bail is granted to the petitioner on furnishing surety bonds to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate/ Duty Magistrate concerned.

The petition is allowed.

It is clarified that the observations made hereinabove shall not be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
