Heard through video conferencing.

Learned State counsel contends that all the prosecution witnesses have been examined and the matter is now listed today itself before the trial Court for recording defence evidence and arguments.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner contends that he does not want to press this petition and the trial Court may be directed to expedite the trial as no headway has been made in the trial for over a year.

The petition is dismissed as not pressed at this stage. The trial Court is directed to conclude the trial expeditiously.
