Suhail Singh Brar

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GURVINDER SINGH GILL

Present:- Mr. Sangram Singh Saron, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Ajay Pal Singh Gill, DAG, Punjab assisted by SP Jaskirat Singh.

(proceedings conducted through video conferencing)

GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner seeks grant of anticipatory bail in a case registered vide FIR No.246 dated 18.10.2014 under Sections 467, 468, 471, 472, 392, 420/120-B IPC, Section 16 of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 and Section 25(6) (7) & (8) of the Arms Act, 1959 at Police Station Kotwali Faridkot, District Faridkot.
2. The learned State counsel, upon instructions from SP Jaskirat Singh, has informed that in the instant case, the investigation has already concluded and challan stands presented and that neither the petitioner has been nominated as an accused nor the prosecution is proceeding against the petitioner.
3. In view of the aforestated position, the instant petition is rendered infructuous and is disposed off as such. However, the counsel for the petitioner has submitted that since the petitioner has apprehension that the police might further investigate the matter so as to implicate the petitioner, the petitioner may be afforded one week's time, in case he sought to be arrested in connection with this very FIR at a later stage.

4. In view of the aforesaid submission, it is directed that in case the petitioner is sought to be arrested pursuant to any further investigation at a later stage, he be afforded one week's prior written notice before effecting his arrest.
