AT CHANDIGARH

Date of Decision: 23.09.2021

(Heard through VC)

Dalip

..... Petitioner

VERSUS

State of Haryana

.... Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present Mr. Piyush Khanna, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Deepshikha Chauhan, AAG, Haryana.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J.(Oral)

The instant petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for grant of regular bail to the petitioner pending trial in FIR No.61 dated 21.03.2021, under Sections 323, 341, 354-B, 506 and 34 IPC (subsequently added Section 307 IPC) registered at Police Station Nathusari Chopta, District Sirsa.

Learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner herein has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is contended that the petitioner herein is in custody since 26.05.2021. The matter stands investigated and the challan stands presented. It is argued that the statement of the material witnesses have been recorded and the trial is likely to take time to conclude.

Per contra, learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondent-State, on instructions from the Investigating Officer, vehemently opposes the grant of regular bail to the petitioner, while submitting that offence alleged against the petitioner is serious in nature, however, does not dispute the fact that the matter stands investigated and challan stands presented.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties.

The trial is likely to take some time to conclude. The petitioner herein has been in custody since 26.05.2021. The matter stands investigated and the challan stands presented. No useful purpose would be served in keeping the petitioner behind bars any longer. At this stage, without commenting on the merits of the case, the instant petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on regular bail on execution of adequate personal and surety bonds to the satisfaction of concerned trial Court/Duty Magistrate.

Anything observed in this order shall not be construed as an expression of opinion on merits of the case.
