VIKAS BAHL, J. (Oral)

This is a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No. 90 dated 25.08.2021 registered under Sections 379-B, 323, 325 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 registered at Police Station Makhu, District Ferozepur (Annexure P-1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of the compromise dated 03.09.2021 (Annexure P-2).

When the matter came up before this Court on 22.09.2021, the following order was passed:-

“This is a petition filed under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.90 dated 25.08.2021 registered under Sections 379-B, 323, 325 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Makhu, District Ferozepur (Annexure P-1) and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 03.09.2021 (Annexure P-2).

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that all the persons concerned are party to the compromise.

Notice of motion for 15.12.2021.

On asking of the Court, Mr.Saurav Khurana, DAG. Punjab, appears and accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State and Mr. Balraj Singh Sidhu, Advocate, appears on behalf of respondent No.2.

The parties are directed to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court for recording their statements qua compromise within a period of one month.

The Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court is directed to submit a report on or before the next date of hearing containing the following information:-

- 1. Number of persons arrayed as accused.*
- 2. Whether any accused is proclaimed offender?*
- 3. Whether the compromise is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence?*
- 4. Whether the accused persons are involved in any other FIR or not?*
- 5. The trial Court is also directed to record the statement of the Investigating Officer as to how many victims/complainants are there in the FIR. ”*

In pursuance of the said order, a report has been submitted by the Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Zira to the Registrar (General) of this Court. The relevant portion of the said report is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“It is also respectfully submitted that para wise report as sought is as under:-

- (1) There is only one accused in this case named above.*
- (2) Said accused is not proclaimed offender in this case.*
- (3) This Court is of the considered opinion from above said statements of parties that the compromise between* complainant Shavinder Kaur on one side and accused Paramjit Singh on the other side has been arrived at voluntarily without any pressure with their free will and same is genuine one.

(4) As per statement of Investigating Officer ASI Gurswinderpal Singh accused Paramjit Singh is not involved in any other FIR.

(5) There is only one complainant/victim in the present case named above.

As such the compliance report along with statements of the parties is hereby submitted please.

Thanking You.”

A perusal of the said report would show that it has been stated that the statements of the complainant as well as the accused have been recorded in the case and both have stated that the matter has been compromised and they have no objection in case the FIR is quashed. It is further stated that the statement of the complainant has been made voluntarily without any fear, coercion or pressure.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner was not declared proclaimed offender in the present case and is not involved in any other case. Learned counsel for the State, as per instructions, has stated that these facts are correct.

Learned counsel for respondent No. 2-complainant has reiterated the factum of compromise and has prayed for quashing of FIR on the basis of the same.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file. After perusing the report submitted by the trial Court, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioner and the complainant. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the prosecution where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble the Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court. XXX---XXX”

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, the petition is allowed and FIR No. 90 dated 25.08.2021 registered under Sections 379-B, 323, 325 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 registered at Police Station Makhu, District Ferozepur (Annexure P-1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of the compromise dated 03.09.2021 (Annexure P-2) are ordered to be quashed, qua the petitioner.
