The instant petition is for quashing of FIR No. 58, dated 27.05.2016, lodged under Sections 406, 498-A of IPC, registered at Police Station Women Cell, Jalandhar (Annexure P-1) and all the consequential proceedings arising out of the same, on the basis of compromise dated 05.08.2021 (Annexure P-3).

Learned counsel for the parties have apprised the Court that in view of the compromise arrived at between the parties, the disputes between the parties have been resolved and they have started living together after compromise.

Vide order dated 30th September, 2021, of this Court, the parties were directed to appear before the learned Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court on 07th October, 2021, to get their statements recorded, regarding the compromise arrived at, between them.

Report has since been received from the learned ACJM,

Jalandhar, in pursuance to the direction of this Court, wherein, the factum of the compromise arrived at between the parties stands verified and confirmed. As per the report compromise has indeed been effected between the parties and the same is without any pressure or coercion and out of their free will and the complainant has also made statement to the effect that she would have no objection if the FIR qua the accused-petitioners is quashed. The trial Court has annexed the copies of the statements of the parties in original along with its report.

Learned State counsel too submits that there is no other accused other than the petitioner and respondent No.2 is the only aggrieved person in the FIR in question.

In view of the report of the learned ACJM, Jalandhar, and the principles laid down by the Apex Court in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and others (2012) 10 SCC 303, and also by the Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, the instant petition is allowed. The aforesaid FIR and all consequential proceedings arising out of it, are quashed.

Needless to say the parties shall remain bound by the terms of compromise and their statements recorded before the Court below.
