CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Imran Farooqi, Advocate for the petitioner

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

The hearing of the case was held through video conferencing on account of restricted functioning of the Courts.

Through this revision petition, the landlord prays for a direction to the Executing Court to execute the decree of eviction of the tenant dated 30.01.2015. It has been contended that the appeal filed by the tenant before the Appellate Authority has been dismissed on 17.03.2018 and the revision petition filed by the tenant is pending in this Court. It has been brought to the notice of the Court that on 28.11.2019 the following order was passed by this Court in the revision petition:-

“Again in terms of written request for adjournment circulated by learned counsel for the appellant on the ground that he is in some personal difficulty, which is not opposed by the other side, adjourned to 21.04.2020.

Since, repeated adjournments have been sought, therefore, it is made clear that pendency of this revision shall have no bearings on the execution, if any and the same shall continue, in accordance with law.”

Learned counsel representing the petitioner contends that there is no interim protection in favour of the respondent-tenant.

If that be so, the Executing Court is requested to proceed with the execution of the eviction decree unless there is any interim order to the contrary.

Disposed of.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
