AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-43489-2021
Decided on 01.12.2021

Sukhi Singh @ Sukhpreet Singh and another ...Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab ...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANOOP CHITKARA

Present: Mr Jasvir Singh Dhaliwal, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Sidakmeet Singh Sandhu, AAG, Punjab.

ANOOP CHITKARA, J.

The petitioner, apprehending arrest in FIR No.74 dated 03.05.2021, registered under Sections 326, 324, 323, 341, 148 & 149 of Indian Penal Code at Police Station Talwandi Sabo, District Bathinda, came up before this Court under Section 438 Cr.P.C., seeking anticipatory bail.

2. In Para 15 of the bail petition, counsel for the petitioners declare that no case is pending against petitioner No.1, however, three cases are pending under NDPS Act against petitioner No.2. Ld. Counsel for the bail petitioners states on instructions that the petitioners have no criminal past relating to the offences prescribing sentence of seven years and more, or when on conviction, the sentence imposed was more than three years.

3. Briefly, the allegations against the petitioners are that on 30.04.2021 at about 8 pm, the complainant was going on motorcycle to drop his friend to his house. When the complainant stopped the bike to drop his friend, suddenly petitioners along with some persons came on the way and encircled them. They raised lalkara and attacked the complainant. The other details are not necessary for the purpose of deciding the present petition.

4. Ld. Counsel for the petitioners contends that the petitioners have joined the investigation and more custodial investigation would serve no purpose whatsoever and incarceration before the proof of guilt would cause grave injustice to the petitioners and family.

5. On instructions from ASI Manjit Singh, learned State counsel does not dispute the statement given by counsel for the petitioners. While opposing the bail, the alternative contention on behalf of the State is that if this Court is inclined to grant bail, such a bond must be subject to very stringent conditions.

6. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners assure this Court that they shall not repeat or involve themselves in such offences in the future.

REASONING:

7. In Gurbaksh Singh Sibbia v State of Punjab, 1980 (2) SCC 565, (Para 30), a Constitutional Bench of Supreme Court held that the bail decision must enter the cumulative effect of the variety of circumstances justifying the grant or refusal of bail. In Kalyan Chandra Sarkar v Rajesh Ranjan @ Pappu Yadav, 2005 (2) SCC 42, (Para 18) a three-member Bench of Supreme Court held that the persons accused of non-bailable offences are entitled to bail if the Court concerned concludes that the prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case against him, or despite the existence of a prima facie case, the Court records reasons for its satisfaction for the need to release such person on bail, in the given fact situations. The rejection of bail does not preclude filing a subsequent application. The courts can release on bail, provided the circumstances then prevailing requires, and a change in the fact situation. In State of Rajasthan v Balchand, AIR 1977 SC 2447, (Para 2 & 3), Supreme Court noticeably illustrated that the basic rule might perhaps be tersely put as bail, not jail, except where there are circumstances suggestive of fleeing from justice or thwarting the course of justice or creating other troubles in the shape of repeating offences or intimidating witnesses and the like by the petitioners who seeks enlargement on bail from the Court. It is true that the gravity of the offence involved is likely to induce the petitioners to avoid the course of justice and must weigh when considering the question of jail. So also, the heinousness of the crime. In Gudikanti Narasimhulu v Public Prosecutor, (1978) 1 SCC 240, (Para 16), Supreme Court held that the delicate light of the law favors release unless countered by the negative criteria necessitating that course. In Prahlad Singh Bhati v NCT, Delhi, (2001) 4 SCC 280, Supreme Court highlighted one of the factors for bail to be the public or the State's immense interest and similar other considerations. In Dataram Singh v State of Uttar Pradesh, (2018) 3 SCC 22, (Para 6), Supreme Court held that the grant or refusal of bail is entirely within the discretion of the judge hearing the matter and though that discretion is unfettered, it must be exercised judiciously, compassionately, and in a humane manner. Also, conditions for the grant of bail ought not to be so strict as to be incapable of compliance, thereby making the grant of bail illusory.

8. The possibility of the accused influencing the investigation, tampering with evidence, intimidating witnesses, and the likelihood of fleeing justice, can be taken care of by imposing elaborative and stringent conditions. In Sushila Aggarwal, (2020) 5 SCC 1, Para 92, the Constitutional Bench held that unusually, subject to the evidence produced, the Courts can impose restrictive conditions. In Sumit Mehta v. State of N.C.T. of Delhi, (2013)15 SCC 570, Para 11, Supreme Court holds that while exercising power Under Section 438 of the Code, the Court is duty-bound to strike a balance between the individual's right to personal freedom and the right of investigation of the police. While exercising utmost restraint, the Court can impose conditions countenancing its object as permissible under the law to ensure an uninterrupted and unhampered investigation.

9. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, the interim order dated 01.11.2021 is made absolute.

10. This Court feels that one opportunity be afforded to the petitioners to course correct and behave in a civilized manner.
