CRM-36104-2021

This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is for preponing the date of hearing of the main petition, which is already fixed for 11.11.2021.

Notice of application.

At the asking of Court, learned State counsel accepts notice of application and stated that he has no objection if application is allowed.

In view of the grounds mentioned in the application and no objection by learned State counsel, hearing of the main petition is preponed and is taken on Board today itself.

CRM is allowed.

Main Case

Present petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C for grant of regular bail has been moved by petitioner-Lakhvir Singh in case FIR No.168 dated 10.08.2021 under Sections 489-A, 489-B, 489-C and 489-D IPC, registered at Police Station Baghapurana, District Moga.

Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that version, as alleged in the FIR, is totally concocted one and there is no iota of truth therein. He further submits that allegedly counterfeit currency notes of Rs.50,000/- and components for manufacturing counterfeit currency notes were recovered from petitioner. He further urges that as a matter of fact, petitioner is running a proprietorship firm under the name and style of M/s L.K.Education Teaching Aids and as such, he (petitioner) is in the business of printing and sale of advertisement and election material and to this effect, he has placed on record Certificate of Provisional Registration (Annexure P/2) issued by Government of India and Government of Punjab. He further submits that petitioner is languishing in custody since 10.08.2021 and he is no more required by the Police for any investigation purpose as after completion of investigation, final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. (Challan) has already been presented in Court. He further urges that since trial of the case would take sufficient time to conclude, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner in custody further and he may be released on bail.

On the other hand, learned State counsel while opposing instant petition has vehemently argued that keeping in view seriousness of offence, petitioner does not deserve the concession of bail.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the contents of petition.

At this stage, without commenting anything on the merits of the case lest it may prejudice the outcome of the trial but taking into consideration the fact that petitioner is in custody since 10.08.2021; that petitioner is no more required by the Investigating Agency for investigation purpose; that Challan has already been presented in Court and since trial of the case would take sufficient time to conclude, no useful purpose would be served by detaining the petitioner in custody further, thus, he deserves the concession of bail.

In view of above, instant petition for grant of regular bail moved by petitioner-Lakhvir Singh is allowed and he is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing personal/surety bonds to the satisfaction of Trial Court/ Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Magistrate, Moga , as the case may be.
