.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN KUMAR TYAGI

Present : Ms. Harpreet Kaur Arora, Advocate for Mr. Rahul Vijay Singh Chugh, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. M.S. Nagra, Asstt. A.G., Punjab
for the respondent-State.

ARUN KUMAR TYAGI, J (ORAL)

(The case has been taken up for hearing through video conferencing.)

The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (for short 'the Cr.P.C.') for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.242 dated 27.09.2020 registered under Section 61 and 78(2) of the Punjab Excise Act, 1914 in Police Station Sardulgarh, District Mansa.

While issuing notice of motion on 11.11.2020, this Court had granted interim anticipatory bail to the petitioner with direction to join the investigation and the relevant part of the said order reads as under:-

"The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (for short 'the Cr.P.C.') for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.242 dated 27.09.2020 registered under Section 61 and 78(2) of the Punjab Excise Act, 1914 in Police Station Sardulgarh, District Mansa.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case on the basis of secret information received. The petitioner was not arrested on the spot and no recovery was made from him. The petitioner is ready to join the investigation and his custodial interrogation is not required as the recovery has already been made.

Notice of motion.

Pursuant to supply of advance copy of the petition, Mr. Rana Harjasdeep, DAG, Punjab has appeared and accepted notice on behalf of the respondent-State.

Learned State Counsel seeks time to file reply.

Adjourned to 05.02.2021.

In the meanwhile, the petitioner is directed to join the investigation as and when called upon to do so. In the event of his arrest, the petitioner shall be released on interim bail by the arresting officer/investigating officer on furnishing of bail bonds by him to the satisfaction of the arresting officer/investigating officer. The petitioner shall comply with the conditions enumerated under Section 438(2) (i) to (iii) of the Cr.P.C. In view of Section 438(2)(iv) read with Section 437(3)(b) of the Cr.P.C. interim anticipatory bail granted to the petitioner shall also be subject to the condition that he shall not commit any similar offence under the Punjab Excise Act, 1914 after his release on interim anticipatory bail. In case of non-compliance of the abovesaid conditions, the petitioner shall not be entitled to the protection of interim anticipatory bail allowed to him."

The petition has been opposed by the respondent-State.

However, no reply has been filed by the respondent-State.

I have heard learned Counsel for the petitioner and learned State Counsel and have gone through the record.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner has, while reiterating submissions made on 11.11.2020, submitted that in compliance with order dated 11.11.2020, the petitioner has joined the investigation.

On the other hand, learned State Counsel has vehemently opposed the petition and submitted that in view of gravity of accusation, the petitioner does not deserve grant of anticipatory bail and the petition may be dismissed.

However, learned State Counsel has, on instructions from ASI Bhajan Lal, acknowledged that in compliance with order dated 11.11.2020 passed by this Court, the petitioner has joined the investigation and that his custodial interrogation is not required for effecting any recovery.

In view of the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of accusation against the petitioner, the fact that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required in the case and there is no material to justify the apprehension of the petitioner fleeing from justice or tampering with evidence or criminally intimidating the prosecution witnesses but without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, I am of the considered view that the petitioner deserves the grant of anticipatory bail.

Therefore, the petition is allowed and order dated 11.11.2020 granting interim bail to the petitioner is made absolute. However, the petitioner shall join the investigation again if and as and when called upon to do so and shall comply with the conditions enumerated under Section 438(2) (i) to (iii) of the Cr.P.C. In view of Section 438(2)(iv) read with Section 437(3)(b) of the Cr.P.C., anticipatory bail granted to the petitioner shall also be subject to the condition that he shall not commit any similar offence under the Punjab Excise Act, 1914 after his release on anticipatory bail. In case of non-compliance of the above-said conditions, the petitioner shall not be entitled to the protection of anticipatory bail allowed to him.
