DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

The matter has been taken up through video conferencing.

The present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.119 dated 29.05.2019 under Sections 363/366-A/120-B IPC registered at Police Station City Tarn Taran, district Tarn Taran on the basis of a compromise dated 02.03.2020 (Annexure P-2) entered into between the parties.

On 14.12.2020 this Court had directed the parties to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court on 21.12.2020 for recording of their respective statements with regard to the compromise, who in turn was directed to submit a report along with the recorded statements with regard to the veracity of the compromise between the parties as also to apprise this Court whether all the accused are party to the compromise; whether any of them have ever been declared proclaimed offender(s) and if is there any other criminal case pending against them.

As directed, report dated 22.12.2020 from the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Tarn Taran, has been received, as per which the parties had recorded their statements before the trial Court in terms of the compromise arrived at between them and that no proclamation proceedings/criminal cases are pending against the petitioners.

Learned State counsel has also raised no objection if the present petition is allowed.

In view of the above, continuation of the proceedings in pursuance of the afore-referred FIR in which the parties belong to the same village; where the investigation is at the initial stage and the FIR being the result of love affair between petitioner No.1 and respondent No.3, which is now amicably resolved with the intervention of the elders, would be an abuse of the process of law and in terms of the law laid down by the Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and others, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, this Court deems it just and proper to allow the petition and resultantly quash FIR No.119 dated 29.05.2019 under Sections 363/366-A/120-B IPC registered at Police Station City Tarn Taran, district Tarn Taran and all proceedings arising therefrom qua the petitioners.
