Case heard by video conferencing.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the report under Section 173 of the Cr.P.C. having been filed before the competent court, this petition has been rendered infructuous.

However, he still submits that, naturally, he would be availing of his remedy before the competent court by filing a protest petition.

Disposed of as having been infructuous, with obviously all remedies as are legally available to the petitioner always available to him at any stage.
