After arguing for considerable time, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that inadvertently he could not place on record the complete documents as filed under Section 173 (2) Cr.P.C. and wishes to withdraw the present petition with liberty to file fresh one.

Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that he may be given exemption from filing the typed and translated copy of all set of documents. Learned State counsel has no objection, if the petitioner is given such liberty.

Consequently, the present petition is disposed of having been withdrawn with liberty to file fresh as aforesaid.

It is clarified that withdrawal of the present petition will not come in the way of filing a fresh petition.
