

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-46196-2021

Date of Decision:01.12.2021

Nazar Singh and others

...Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANT PARKASH

Present: Mr. D.S. Malwai, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. Tanvir Joshi, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Basant Sharma, Advocate for respondent No.4.

SANT PARKASH, J.

Petitioners have approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure invoking its inherent jurisdiction for quashing of FIR No.62 dated 03.07.2019 registered under Section 306 IPC at Police Station Cheema, District Sangrur as well as the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise (P-2).

The above-said FIR was registered on the statement of Karam Singh, father of the deceased, to the effect that his son, namely, Satgur Singh was married with Chhinder Kaur. On account of being harassment meted out to his son Satgur Singh by his wife as well as other family members of his wife, he committed suicide by consuming poisonous substance.

Now, with the intervention of the respectable persons, the matter has been amicably compromised between the parties and they have resolved their disputes and differences.

Keeping in view the fact that the parties have entered into a compromise, this Court vide orders dated 02.11.2021 had directed the parties to appear before the trial court/Illaq Magistrate for getting their statements recorded in support of the compromise. In pursuance of the aforesaid orders, a report has been received from Additional Sessions Judge, Sangrur at Flag-A stating therein that the compromise arrived at between the parties is without any pressure or coercion from any one and the same is genuine.

Learned State counsel and learned counsel appearing for the complainant admit the factum of compromise and submit that they have no objection to the quashing of the FIR.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record.

After considering the nature of offences allegedly committed and the fact that both the parties have amicably settled their dispute, continuance of criminal prosecution would be an exercise in futility, as the chances of ultimate conviction are bleak.

Consequently, keeping in view the fact that the dispute has been amicably settled between the parties and in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Gian Singh Vs State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Cr.) 543 and judgment of Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh Vs State of Punjab, 2007(3) RCR (Cr.) 1052 the present petition is allowed. Resultantly, FIR No.62 dated 03.07.2019 registered under Section 306 IPC at Police Station Cheema, District Sangrur as well as the consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua the petitioners.
