Learned counsel for the appellant-Insurance Company fairly states that the matter is settled and they are not interested in pursuing the present appeal and thus, prays for withdrawal of the same.

Learned counsel for the Insurance company has also submitted that at the time of filing of the appeal by the Insurance Company, they deposited Rs.25,000/-, which is lying with the Court. He has further submitted that the said amount be sent to the Tribunal for onward disbursal of the same to the claimant-appellants, which will be set off with the amount settled in cross appeal filed by the claimant(s).

We find the submissions made by learned counsel for the Insurance Company rational and genuine and the same is accepted. Accordingly, we direct the Registry to send the amount of Rs.25,000/- deposited by the Insurance Company to the Tribunal for onward disbursal of the same to the claimant-appellants and the same shall be adjusted in the settled amount to be given in the cross-appeal.

In view of the above, the present appeal is dismissed as withdrawn.
