Vs.

State of HaryanaRespondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANOOP CHITKARA

Present: Mr.Anshuman Dalal, Advocate for the petitioner(s).

ANOOP CHITKARA J. (ORAL)

FIR No.	Dated	Police Station	Sections
213	14.06.2021	Asauda Jhajjar, District Jhajjar, Haryana	323, 34, 506 IPC, 1860 (Sections 148, 149, 324, 325, 326 IPC added later on)

The petitioners, apprehending arrest in the FIR captioned above, came up before this Court under Section 438 Cr.P.C., seeking anticipatory bail

2. NOTICE
3. On asking of the Court, Mr. Manish Bansal, DAG, Haryana accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State.
4. Learned counsel for the State has opposed the grant of anticipatory bail on the grounds that the injuries were on the vital organ of the body and also grievous in nature.
5. Ld. Counsel for the bail petitioners states on instructions that the petitioners have no criminal past relating to the offences prescribing sentence of seven years and more, or when on conviction, the sentence imposed was more than three years. The status report also does not mention any criminal past of the accused.
6. Briefly, the allegations against the petitioners are that on 13.06.2021 at 8:30 a.m. , the complainant alongwith his brother were inquiring about the persons who had thrown garbage in the street. At that time, Monu, Deepak and Arun allegedly declared that they had thrown it. Afterthat the parties entered into an altercation and subsequently, the accused persons came there with gandassi and farsas and started fighting with the complainant. Subsequently, the accused inflicted injuries on the complainant. Based on this information, the FIR has been registered.

7. Ld. Counsel for the petitioners contends that the custodial investigation would serve no purpose whatsoever and incarceration before the proof of guilt would cause grave injustice to the petitioner and family. He further submits that co-accused Deepak has been granted concession of anticipatory bail vide order dated 10.11.2021 passed in CRM-M No.44988 of 2021. As such, on the ground of parity, the petitioners are also entitled for grant of bail.

8. While opposing the bail, the alternative contention on behalf of the State is that if this Court is inclined to grant bail, such a bond must be subject to very stringent conditions.

REASONING:

9. In Gurbaksh Singh Sibbia v State of Punjab, 1980 (2) SCC 565, (Para 30), a Constitutional Bench of Supreme Court held that the bail decision must enter the cumulative effect of the variety of circumstances justifying the grant or refusal of bail. In Kalyan Chandra Sarkar v Rajesh Ranjan @ Pappu Yadav, 2005 (2) SCC 42, (Para 18) a three-member Bench of Supreme Court held that the persons accused of non-bailable offences are entitled to bail if the Court concerned concludes that the prosecution has failed to establish a prima facie case against him, or despite the existence of a prima facie case, the Court records reasons for its satisfaction for the need to release such person on bail, in the given fact situations. The rejection of bail does not preclude filing a subsequent application. The courts can release on bail, provided the circumstances then prevailing requires, and a change in the fact situation. In State of Rajasthan v Balchand, AIR 1977 SC 2447, (Para 2 & 3), Supreme Court noticeably illustrated that the basic rule might perhaps be tersely put as bail, not jail, except where there are circumstances suggestive of fleeing from justice or thwarting the course of justice or creating other troubles in the shape of repeating offences or intimidating witnesses and the like by the petitioner who seeks enlargement on bail from the Court. It is true that the gravity of the offence involved is likely to induce the petitioner to avoid the course of justice and must weigh when considering the question of bail. So also, the heinousness of the crime. In Gudikanti Narasimhulu v Public Prosecutor, (1978) 1 SCC 240, (Para 16), Supreme Court held that the delicate light of the law favors release unless countered by the negative criteria necessitating that course. In Prahlad Singh Bhati v NCT, Delhi, (2001) 4 SCC 280, Supreme Court highlighted one of the factors for bail to be the public or the State's immense interest and similar other considerations. In Dataram Singh v State of Uttar Pradesh, (2018) 3 SCC 22, (Para 6), Supreme Court held that the grant or refusal of bail is entirely within the discretion of the judge hearing the matter and though that discretion is unfettered, it must be exercised judiciously, compassionately, and in a humane manner. Also, conditions for the grant of bail ought not to be so strict as to be incapable of compliance, thereby making the grant of bail illusory.

10. The possibility of the accused influencing the investigation, tampering with evidence, intimidating witnesses, and the likelihood of fleeing justice, can be taken care of by imposing elaborate and stringent conditions. In Sushila Aggarwal, (2020) 5 SCC 1, Para 92, the Constitutional Bench held that unusually, subject to the evidence produced, the Courts can impose restrictive conditions. In Sumit Mehta v. State of N.C.T. of Delhi, (2013)15 SCC 570, Para 11, Supreme Court holds that while exercising power Under Section 438 of the Code, the Court is duty-bound to strike a balance between the individual's right to personal freedom and the right of investigation of the police. While exercising utmost restraint, the Court can impose conditions countenancing its object as permissible under the law to ensure an uninterrupted and unhampered investigation.

11. Regarding circumstances for grant of bail is the nature of offence and the fact that the age of petitioner No.2, is just 21 years.
