VEERPAL KAUR & ORS VS VIJAY BAHADUR & ORS

Present: Mr. H.P.S. Ishar, Advocate for the appellant(s).

Mr. Nigam Kumar Bhardwaj, Advocate for the respondent/Insurance Company.

(Though video-conferencing)

As per statement of learned counsel for the appellants, the offer given by the Insurance company to the tune of Rs.3,75,000/- has been accepted by the appellants towards full and final settlement of the claim in the present appeal.

Even today, learned counsel for the parties are ad idem that they will stick to the proposed enhancement of Rs.3,75,000/- towards full and final settlement in the present appeal over and above the amount already awarded by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal.

Accordingly, in the light of understanding between the parties, we dispose of this case with a direction to the Insurance Company to deposit a crossed-cheque for Rs.3,75,000/- in the names of the appellants with the office of the Lok Adalat of the High Court within a period of three weeks, in compliance of this order, failing which, interest @ 9% per annum shall follow on the enhanced amount of compensation with effect from the due date till final realisation of the amount. The apportionment of the enhanced amount shall be made in the same manner as prescribed by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal. On receiving the cheque from the Insurance Company, the concerned officer/official of the Lok Adalat Branch shall issue proper receipt to the Insurance Company. The appellants/appellants' counsel may collect the cheque from the office of the Lok Adalat.

Copy of this order be supplied/sent to the counsel/parties and file be returned to the Hon'ble High Court.
