(PROCEEDINGS THROUGH V.C.)

AUGUSTINE GEORGE MASIH, J. (ORAL)

As per the report of the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court, the proceedings have failed. Parties have not been able to agree for an amicable settlement.

2. Counsel for the appellant as well as counsel for respondent No.4 submit that they would file a joint application before the official respondents within a period of three weeks from today, complete in all respects, which may be considered and a decision taken thereon by the competent authority thereafter. They also pray that the interim order may be ordered to continue till the submission of the application.

3. In the light of the request made by the counsel for the appellant as well as the counsel for respondent No.4, liberty is granted to them to file a joint application as per rules/instructions/orders/regulations, which may be applicable for transfer of the electricity connection, which was in the name of their father Harbhajan Singh, within a period of three weeks.

4. If such an application is made complete in all respects within the time stipulated above, the interim order which has been passed by this Court, shall enure till a decision is taken by the competent authority on the said application.

5. It goes without saying that the appellant shall continue paying the electricity charges during the interregnum.

6. The appeal stands disposed of accordingly.

7. In the light of the disposal of the appeal, all pending applications stand disposed of as infructuous.
