JARNAIL SINGH

..Review applicant-petitioner

Versus

UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS

..Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. H.P.S. Ishar, Advocate for the review applicant-petitioner.

Mr. Deepak Balyan, Advocate for respondent-UOI.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The learned counsel representing the applicant-petitioner contends that the CWP-6589-2020, was wrongly disposed of on 24.03.2021, along with the other writ petitions, as the subject matter of the present writ petition is separate.

With the assistance of the learned counsel representing the petitioner, this Court has gone through the judgment passed on 24.03.2021. Indeed, the dispute in the present case is not connected with the other cases which were disposed of on 24.03.2021.

Hence, the order passed in the present writ petition is recalled.

Taken on board for hearing.

The learned counsel representing the petitioner contends that the Authorities under Ex-Servicemen Contributory Health Scheme are indulging in misappropriation of funds. It is contended that the petitioner on being referred to Raja Hospital, Nawanshahr, Punjab, has suffered, due to wrong medical treatment. He further contends that the Health Authorities under the said Scheme are not providing proper services.

In the considered view of this Court, the petitioner is basically aggrieved of the alleged medical negligence of the Hospital staff. He also alleges that the Authorities are misappropriating the funds. Such facts as alleged in the petition are required to be proved by leading evidence which can appropriately be led before the Court holding regular proceedings.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, the petitioner is relegated to the alternative remedy.

Disposed of.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
