CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MANJARI NEHRU KAUL

PRESENT: Mr. Sachin Kaushik, Advocate for the petitioner(s).

MANJARI NEHRU KAUL, J. (Oral)

The instant petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., for quashing of FIR No. 463, dated 27.09.2020, under Sections 306, 201 of IPC, registered at Police Station Sonipat Sadar, District Sonipat (annexed as Annexure P-1) and quashing of impugned order dated 07.10.2021 (annexed as Annexure P-2) passed by learned ASJ/Fast Track Court, Sonipat, whereby, charges under Sections 306 & 201 of IPC were framed against the petitioner and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that on a bare perusal of the FIR in question, no case is made out against him, which would even remotely attract the mischief of Section 306 of IPC. Learned counsel further submits that a twisted version has been put-forth in the FIR in question by the complainant father, whereas, the fact of the matter was that the deceased as well as the petitioner who were close friends, had been in constant and regular touch with each other, which found corroboration from the call record details of the deceased. Further submits that the allegations levelled that the deceased was being continuously harassed over the phone and being pressurized by the petitioner to accept his love was nothing but a bundle of lies.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the material on record.

Prima facie, a case under Sections 306 & 201 of IPC is indeed made out against the accused for which he has already been charged by the trial Court vide order dated 07.10.2021 (Annexure P-2). While exercising its inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., this Court cannot delve into the authenticity of allegations levelled, more so, when charges already stand framed and the prosecution evidence is due to be recorded before the trial Court shortly.

Dismissed.
