SUDHIR MITTAL, J. (Oral)

Learned State counsel submits that the application for registration has been got attested from respondent No. 2.

Learned counsel for respondent No. 1 submits that in view of the attestation the registration has been done and, thus, the writ petition has been rendered infructuous.

Learned counsel appearing for respondent No. 2 submits that fee payable to his client has not been paid till date and a fake receipt has been produced to show that the tuition fee has been paid.

In view of the above statements, the writ petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous. Respondent No. 2 is at liberty to recover its fee in accordance with law.
